The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. V. RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 23, 1870. NO. 288

The Daily Sentinel.

JOSIAH TURNER. Jr., EDITOR.

The following article taken from the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel, is a fair statement of the facts of the matter discussed, especially, those relating to the thefts and rascalities of William Woods Holden:

Holden, the Radical Governor of North Carolina, is one of the most unscrupulous despots and vindictive tyrants that ever disgraced the annals of modern civilization. Having ridden into power on the shoulders of ignorant and semi-barbarous negroes controlled and manipulated by a gang of corrupt carpet-baggers, and scalawags, he is determined to perpetuate that power at all hazards and in defiance of all legal obstacles. His administration has been characterized by so much of fraud and corruption—his open and flagrant violations of the law so bold and barefaced—his repeated robberies of the funds of the State so apparent—his intense malignity and cruel injustice towards the white citizens so savage and diabolical, that even a large portion of those who aided in placing him in power have become disgusted with his infamies, and alarmed at his bold outrages upon the lives, liberty and property of the people.

The better informed and more virtuous of his party, both among the blacks and the whites in all sections of the State, are flocking to the standard of the Democracy and lending their aid to crush out the grinding despotism which for two years Holden and his gang have exercised over the people. These mutterings of discontent in his own party have not escaped his attention. For months past he has been calmly surveying the situation and preparing his plans to checkmate those who seek to destroy his power. Having carefully surveyed the whole field, he reached the conclusion that if the contest were left to the arbitrament of the popular will, under the laws of the State, the verdict of the people would, like the "rush of great waters," overwhelm his administration and bury his rotten carcass forever under the just indignation of an outraged constituency. There was no mistaking the indications of the popular breeze. He saw the storm coming, and, like the desperate adventurer who risks his all upon the turn of fortune's wheel, he threw himself in the face of the constitution and laws of the State, invited the East Tennessee bushwhacker and murderer, Kirk, into his councils, and laid before this wily ruffian his plans to harry the State, punish his enemies, intimidate the people, and secure a triumph at the approaching elections.

The Legislature, a large majority in both branches of which are Republicans, have, upon the application of Holden for that purpose, refused to authorize him to call the militia into active service. Without military power the contest would be a hopeless one. He, therefore, determined to set up a military establishment of his own. To give color to this contemplated high-handed outrage, he issued a proclamation, declaring certain counties in a state of insurrection, and suspending the writ of habeas corpus. Then follows another proclamation organizing a standing army of one thousand men, and placing Kirk at the head of this force.

Kirk, having recruited his forces mainly from his jayhawk associates in East Tennessee, takes the field in obedience to Holden's orders, and marching his valiant crew of horse thieves and hen house robbers to Graham, the county seat of Alamance county, declares that quiet town under martial law, arrests a number of its leading citizens, organizes a drum head court martial, and proceeds in his preparations for a trial of his victims.

No charge are made against these persons—they are not even informed of the cause of their arrest. Denied communication with their friends, they wait in silence the decrees of these infernal hell-hounds of Holden.

In the meantime, Chief Justice Pearson, originally a Holden Republican, issues a writ of habeas corpus directed to Kirk, requiring him to bring before him his prisoners, and show by what authority they are deprived of their liberty. When the writ is served, Kirk contemptuously replies, "This kind of thing is played out," and takes no futher notice of Judge Pearson's writ. One of the parties in whose behalf the writ was issued is James E. Boyed, a leading and respected citizen, who is now a candidate for the Legislature with every prospect of success. The other parties are gentlemen of unblemished reputation, quiet and inoffensive citizens.

Since Kirk's refusal to respect the habeas corpus, the Chief Justice has under consideration the extent of this powers to compel obedience, Many of the citizens of the vicinity have offered their services to the sheriff as a posse to arrest Kirk and bring him before Chief Justice Pearson to purge his contempt What will be the result it is difficult now to determine.

Since the service of the writ of habeas corpus upon Kirk, he has made further arrested. On Tuesday last, while the Congressional candidates were speaking at Yanceyville, in Caswell county Hon. John Kerr, Hon. S. P. Hill, the sheriff of the county, and other prominent citizens, were arrested There is no pretence that there was the slight st disturbance until Kirk and his jayhawkers pounced upon the impresive crowd.

The people in that section of the State seem to be getting thoroughly aroused, and we should not be surprised to her at any moment that having exhausted all legal means of redress, they have resorted to force for their mutual protection. This is certainly a desperate state of affairs, and in the absence of government protection the people must protect themselves. We are very much mistaken as to the character of the descendants of the Mecklenburg declaration if they submit much longer to these infamous outrages. It neither the courts, the State government or the government at Washington will give them protection, they must do as their fathers did, strike for themselves, In such a struggle they will have the warm sympathy of all good citizens North and South."

GOVERNOR HOLDEN.—and the State Militia of North Carolina are becoming more outrageous in their wrongs upon the people of that State every day. It is certainly the duty of the President to interfere, under that clause of the constitution guaranteeing a republican form of government to each State.—N. Y. Herald.

INVESTMENT OF SCHOOL FUNDS.

The State realized for the purposes of education from the "Land Scrip" donated by the United States, $122,000. This money passed into the hands of Gov. Holden and his associates in administering the State government. What did he and they do with this money? They took it to New York and invested it in the bonds of this State when they were bearing a nominal price and daily becoming more odious.—They got for this money 40 old State bonds and 40 new State bonds of $1,000 each and 160 special tax bonds, making in all 240 State bonds, for the money. These bonds are worth almost nothing. The 160 special tax bonds were afterwards repudiated by express act of the Legislature and are hence worth nothing; the other bonds are worth next to nothing. Does anybody doubt this? If so, let him look to page 69 of the Report of the Superintendent of Education.

Who did this work? Gov. Holden and Robt. W. Lassiter, the latter now a candidate for re-election to the Senate in Granville county. We trust Mr. Edwards, his opponent, will bring this matter to the attention of the people. As for Holden, his crimes are so great, this little matter is regarded as a trifle with him. Who held the special tax bonds so bought by Mr. Senator with the sanction and direction of Holden? The "Ring," Jones, Swepson, Littlefield & Co.

Now we ask and the people ask, why then were worthless spurious bonds bought? Holden and Lassiter knew they were almost worthless and growing worse daily. What motive can be assigned for such a worthless investment? But one, and that is, the motive to benefit the "Ring." Do the people see? This is another one of Lassiter's "klidee" operations, it is akin to the penitentiary swindle, in which Mr. Lassiter sold his worthless bonds for a high price. Let the people read and consider, and especially let the people of Granville and Person remember that this same Mr. Lassiter is asking them to send him back to the Legislature to perform more similar operations.

So goes the school fund. When will the children be educated? We will tell the people more about this matter in a day or two.

RESIST IF YOU DARE.

We stated a day or two ago, that when Judge Pearson spoke, the Constitution and laws would be sustained, and would resist Holden and Kirk.

The Governor makes a great hullabaloo over the sentence, twisting it, in his usual style, and saying that we are going to resist.

Now, Dad, we expect the Constitution and the law to overtake you and Kirk, and resist your unlawful, revolutionary movements. At the time of writing this paragraph, it is not known what the decision of Judge Pearson will be. Strange things occur in these strange times. But we can form a pretty shrewd guess what his decision will be, if it is in accordance with the tenor of his whole former life; and if we conjecture rightly, you will be resisted in your mad career, in the way and manner in which all such mad schemes as yours should be resisted, by the Constitution and laws of the State.

But before this is in type, it will be known whether we have conjectured rightly or not.

Col. A. M. Waddell, the Conservative candidate for Congress in the 3rd District, and his Radical opponent, met at Fayetteville last Monday, when Holden's "Brigadier" got a tremendous skinning. All accounts agree in saying that poor little Dockery was completely demolished.

All the respectable journals of the State, and in fact the whole country, are denouncing in unmeasured terms, the military proceedings of W. W. Holden.

Decision of Judge Pearson in the Habeas Corpus Case.

Ex parte Adolphus G. Moore.

Upon proof of service and the failure of Col. Kirk to return the writ, the counsel of the prisoner submitted two motions:

1. For an attachment against G. W. Kirk, for failing to make return.

2 For a writ, to be directed to the Sheriff of some county, commanding him, with the power of the county, if necessary, to take the prisoner out of the hands of said Kirk and have him before the Chief Justice.

The fact of service and the failure to make return was a sufficient foundation for these motions. But the affidavit sets out further, that G. W. Kirk said, "he was acting under the orders of Gov. Holden and should make no return."

This extraneous matter, if true, had in my judgment, an important bearing on the pending motions, and not being at liberty to assume it to true, on the verbal statement of Col. Kirk, I addressed a communication to His Excellency, asking to be informed if Col. Kirk had such orders?

The purpose was to have the order to Col. Kirk avowed or disavowed, and make it a final fact one way or the other, and to afford an opportunity to His Excellency, if avowed, of setting out the ground of his action and of being heard by counsel. The cause of truth is always served by argument on both sides.

1. The main question, and one on which both motions depend, is this. Does the fact that the Governor had declared the county of Alamance to be in a state of insurrection and had taken military possession, have the legal effect to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in that county? If so, the prisoner takes nothing by either motion; if otherwise, it will become necessary to give them further consideration.

It was insisted by the counsel of the prisoner that the Governor's reply is no part of this proceeding and cannot be noticed. In my opinion, it forms a part of the proceedings to the extent of the avowal of the orders given to Col. Kirk, (that is in direct response to my inquiry:) and of the fact that in the exercise of the power conferred on him, he had declared the county of Alamance to be in a state of insurrection, taken military possession and ordered the arrest and detention of the petitioner as a military prisoner. The action of his Excellency is relevant, for, if the priviledge of the writ of habeas corpus be suspended, the writ now moved for, ought not to be awarded. (Exparte Tobias, Watkins, 3 Peters, 193) the Chief Justice says: "the writ ought not to be awarded, if the Court is satisfied that the prisoner would be remanded." This case is cited and approved, ex parte, Milligan, 4 Wallace, 111,

His Excellency was also pleased to set out some of the special facts that satisfied him that the civil authorities of the county were unable to protect its citizens in the enjoyment of life and property; it is not mine to pass upon these facts or judge of their sufficiency.

Mr. Badger, of counsel for His Excellency, relied on the Constitution: "The Governor shall be commander-in-chief, and have power to call out the militia to execute the law, suppress riots and insurrections and to repel invasion," Art. XII, sec. 3. And on the statute, act 1869 '70, chap. XXVII, sec. 1, "The Governor is hereby authorized and empowered, whenever in his judgment, the civil authorities in any county are unable to protect its citizens in the enjoyment of life and property, to declare such county to be in a state of insurrection, and to call into active service, the militia of the State, to such an extent as may become necessary to suppress the insurrection;" and he insisted,

1. This clause of the constitution and the statute empowers the Governor to declare a county to be in a state of insurrection, whenever in his judgment the civil authorities are unable to protect its citizens in the enjoyment of life and property. The Governor has so declared in regard to the county of Alamance, and the judiciary cannot call his action in question or review it, as the matter is confided solely to the judgment of the Governor.

2. The Constitution and this statute confers on the Governor all powers "necessary" to suppress the insurrection, and the Governor has taken military possession of the county and ordered the arrest and detention of the petitioner as a military prisoner. This was necessary, for unlike other insurrections, it is not open resistance, but a novel kind of insurrection, seeking to effect its purpose by a secret association spread over the country, seeking to effect its purpose by secret association, scourging and other crimes committed in the dark and evading the civil authorities by masks, fraud, perjury and intimidation. It follows, that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus is suspended in that county, until the insurrection be suppressed. I accede to the first proposition; full faith and credit are due to the action of the Governor in this matter, because he is the competent authority, acting in pursuance of the constitution and the law. The power from its nature must be exercised by the Executive, as in case of invasion or open insurrection. The extent of the power is alone the subject of Judicial determination. As to the second, it may be that the arrest and also the detention of the petitioner is necessary as a means to suppress the insurrection.—But I cannot yield my assent to the conclusion; the means must be proper, as well as necessary, and the detention of the petitioner as a military prisoner, is not a proper means, for it violates the Declaration of Rights. "The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, shall not be suspended."—Constitution, Art. 1 Sec 21. This is an express provision, and there is no rule of construction or principle of Constitutional law, by which an express provision can be abrogated and made of no force by an implication from any other provision of the instrument.

The clauses should be construed so as to give effect to each, and prevent conflict.—This is done by giving to Art. XII, sec. 3, the effect of allowing military possession of a County to be taken and the arrest of all suspected persons, to be made by military authority, but requiring by force of Art. 1, sec. 21, the persons so arrested, to be surrendered for trial, to the civil authorities on habeas corpus, should they not be delivered over without the writ.

This prevents conflict with the habeas corpus clause and harmonizes with the other articles of the "Declaration of Rights," trial by jury &c., all of which have been handed down to us by our fathers and by our English ancestors, as great fundamental principles, essential for the protection of civil liberty.

I declare my opinion to be, that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus has not been suspended by the action of his Excellency. That the Governor has power under the Constitution and laws to declare a county to be in a State of insurrection, to take military possession, to order the arrest of all suspected persons and to do all other things necessary to suppress the insurrection, but he has no power to disobey the writ of habeas corpus, or to order the trial of any citizen otherwise than by jury, according to the law of the land. Such action would be in excess of his power.

The Judiciary has power to declare the action of the Executive, as well as acts of the General Assembly, when in violation of the Constitution, void and of no effect.—Having conceded full faith and credit to the action of his Excellency within the scope of the power conferred on him. I feel assured he will in like manner give due observance to the law as announced by the Judiciary. Indeed he cannot refuse to do so, without taking upon himself, the responsibility of acting on the extreme principle, "The safety of the State is the supreme law." I will venture to hope, as evil as the times may be, our country has not yet reached the point when a resort to extreme measures has become a public necessity.

2. The motion for an attachment against Col. Kirk is based on the habeas corpus act, acts 1868 '69, chapt. I, sec. 15. "If any person on whom a writ of habeas corpus is served, shall refuse or neglect to obey the same by producing the body &c., within the time required and no sufficient excuse be shown, it shall be the duty of the Judge or Court, forthwith to issue an attachment against such person to the Sheriff of any county in the State, commanding him immediately to arrest such person and bring him before the Judge or Court, and such person shall be committed to jail, until he shall make return to the writ, and comply with any order that may be made in relation to the party for whose relief the writ shall have been issued."

Col. Kirk has refused to make return.

The question is, do the facts before me "show a sufficient excuse?" The affidavit sets out that Col. Kirk put his refusal on the ground, that he had orders from his commander in chief, who is the Governor of the State, not to obey the writ. His Excellency avows that Col. Kirk was acting under his orders. So, we have this case.—Col. Kirk is commanded by the Chief Justice to produce the body. He is ordered by his commander in chief not to obey the writ. What was the man to do? He elected to obey his orders. In my opinion thereto was sufficient excuse for refusing to return the writ. The motion is not allowed. The act in question does not rest on the idea of punishing for a contempt of the Judge or Court, but of compelling a return to the writ and the production of the body. It is a substitute for the provision in "the old habeas corpus act," which punished the officer or person refusing or neglecting to make due return "upon conviction by indictment," with a fine of $500 for the first offence, and of $1,000 and incapacity to hold office for the second. The late act is an improvement upon the former, by substituting the speedy remedy of attachment in place of indictment and the severe punishment of imprisonment. Both acts are evidently intended to punish for not making return, and the last is also intended for the immediate relief of the party in whose behalf the writ is issued. The notion of punishing for a contempt of the Judge or Court, is not involved in either act, certainly not in that of 1868–'69; that is provided for by the "contempt act," (same session.) The proceeding is, by a rule to show cause why an attachment should not issue. And yet I was urged, with much vehemence by learned and aged counsel to rule Kirk up for a contempt of the Chief Justice, in this, the affidavit of service sets out that Col. Kirk, when the writ was served, said, "tell them such things are played out, I have my orders from Gov. Holden, and shall not obey the writ," "I will surrender them on Gov. Holden's order, but not otherwise, unless they send a sufficient force to whip me." This, as was well said by Mr. Badger, is the language of a rude soldier and not as courteous as we usually find in Judicial proceedings. The motion for a rule to show cause for this contempt is not pertinent to the matter now on hand. The evidence on which it rests comes in a questionable shape, extraneous matter put into an affidavit of service to excite prejudice, and the motion made at the instance of one who is under arrest for the horrid crime of murder by midnight assassination; at a time when, as Mr. Bragg feelingly remarked "we are in the last ditch;" we look to the Judiciary as our only hope, if that fails us the country is gone! gone! gone!"

I do not feel it to be my duty to leave grave matters and turn aside to put a rule on a rude soldier to show cause for making a flippant speech. I will be borne out by every member of the profession in saying, during thirty years I have had the honor of a seat on the bench, I have never been slow to punish for contempt and preserve the dignity of the Court when I believed there was an intent to assail it. I know my duty and trust, I have firmness enough to discharge it. These remarks seemed called for because of the earnestness with which the motion was pressed, in language more courtly but fully as strong as that used by the rude soldier, and the excited manner in which I was reminded of my duty and exhorted to perform it, nay, the oath of office was read to me, and I had the benefit of hearing read much of the lofty language of Lord Mansfield.

3. The motion for a precept directed to the Sheriff of some county to bring the petitioner forthwith before me, and if necessary to take with him the power of the county, is based on the 17th and 18th sections of the habeas corpus act. "The Court or Judge may direct a precept to any Sheriff, Coroner, or other person to be designated therein, commanding him to bring forthwith before such Court or Judge the party (wherever to be found) for whose benefit the writ of habeas corpus shall have been granted." "In the execution of this writ the Sheriff or person designated may call out the power of the county."

The petitioner is entitled to this writ; the only question is, to whom should it be directed. The motion is that it should be directed to the Sheriff of some county.

I have considered the matter fully and have come to the conclusion not to direct it to a Sheriff. The act gives a discretion. In the present condition of things, the counties of Alamance and Caswell declared to be in a state of insurrection and occupied by military forces, and the public mind feverishly excited; it is highly probable, nay, in my opinion, certain, that a writ in the hands of a Sheriff, (with authority to call out the power of the county) by which he is commanded with force, if necessary, to take the petitioner out of the hands of the military authorities, will plunge the whole State into civil war.

If the Sheriff demands the petitioner of Col. Kirk, with his present orders, he will refuse, and then comes war. The country has had war enough. But it was said by the counsel of the petitioner, "if in the assertion of civil liberty, war comes, let it come! The blood will not be on your hands or on ours; it will be on all who disregard the sacred writ of habeas corpus. Let Justice be done if the heavens fall."

It would be to act with the impetuosity of youth and not with the calmness of age, to listen to such counsels. "Let justice be done if heaven falls," is a beautiful figure of speech, quoted by every one of the five learned counsel. Justice must be done, or the power of the Judiciary be exhausted, but I would forfeit all claim to prudence tempered with firmness should I, without absolute necessity, add fuel to the flame, and plunge the country into civil war, provided my duty can be fully discharged without that awful consequence. Wisdom dictates, if justice can be done, "let heaven stand." Unless the Governor revokes his orders Col. Kirk will resist: that appears from the affidavit of service.

The second branch of the motion, that the power of the county be called out if necessary to aid in taking the petitioner by force out of the hands of Kirk, is as difficult of solution as the first.

The power of the county, or "posse comitatus," means the men of the county in which the writ is to be executed; in this instance Caswell; and that county is declared to be in a state of insurrection. Shall insurgents be called out by the person who is to execute the writ, to join in conflict with the military forces of the State?

It is said a sufficient force will volunteer from other counties; they may belong to the association, or be persons who sympathise with it. But the "posse comitatus" must come from the county where the writ is to be executed, it would be illegal to take men from other counties; this is settled law; shall illegal means be resorted to in order to execute a writ?

Again; every able bodied man in the State belongs to the militia. The Governor is by the constitution "Commander in Chief of the militia of the State," Art. III, sec. 8. So the power of the county is composed of men who are under the command of the Governor; shall these men be required to violate, with force, the orders of their Commander in Chief, and do battle with his other forces that are already in the field? In short, the whole physical power of the State is by the constitution under the control of the Governor; the Judiciary has only a moral power; by the theory of the constitution there can be no conflict between these two branches of the Government.

The writ will be directed to the Marshal of the Supreme Court, with instructions to exhibit it and a copy of this opinion to His Excellency the Governor. If he orders the petitioner to be delivered to the Marshal, well; if not, following the example of Chief Justice Taney. In Merriman's case, Annual Cyclopœdia, for the year 1861, page 555, I have discharged my duty, the power of the Judiciary is exhausted, and the responsibility must rest on the Executive.

PEARSON.

The following is the order of the Chief Justice, to the Marshal:

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in many cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, entending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured is privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted, and claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without its exemption, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was obtained, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

CONGRESSIONAL SPEAKING.—Messrs. Gilliam and Rogers will address the people of the district at the following times and places:

Matthews', Chatham county, " 22.
Hickory Mountain, Chatham co., July 23.

Nashville, Nash county, July 28.

The candidates will be in Granville county on the 1st, 2d and 3d of August, the places for each day hereafter to be designated.

Col. L. C. Edwards Conservative candidate for the Senate, will address the people of Person County at Holloway's on the 27th inst., at Woodsdale on the 28th, and at Roxboro on the 30th.

Fine Melons.—C. H. Weathers keeps them at his store opposite the Post office. We have the best reason in the world for speaking of them favorably, as to size, price and flavor.

Coroner's Inquest.—Mr. Albert Magnin, special coroner, held an inquest on the body of a newly born colored infant, in the city to-day, in regard to the death of which some suspicion was entertained against the mother. The evidence, however, disclosed no criminality on her part, the death of the child, it appeared, being the result of want of assistance at its birth and destitution of all conveniences for such an occasion.—We learn that the Coroner had to furnish food to the mother, Caroline King, to prevent her from starving, and also to pay for the burial of the child.

Row in Camp.—We learn that some of the negro soldiers encamped at the Old Baptist Grove, became alarmed at something, last night, and commenced firing their guns at random in every direction, several of the balls taking effect in the houses and yard fences on adjacent lots.—It is said that the reason given for this conduct is that some person or persons fired into their camp. We do not believe a word of this; but even were it true, it would not justify such reckless conduct, by which the lives of women and children in the neighborhood are endangered. If any one fired into their camp, we have no doubt it was some jealous colored city civilian, taking revenge for the progress the black boys in blue are making among the colored damsels, causing them to snub the plain clothes chaps most provokingly.

The President of the N. C. R. R. will issue return tickets to all delegates and members to the District Conference to be held at Company Shops the 28th of July, 1870.

Delegates will please stop at the Hotel and have their homes assigned them.

Maj. C. W. McClammy, has received the Conservative nomination for the Senate in the 13th District, composed of the counties of New Hanover and Brunswick.

A first rate selection.

A white lad of about 17 years of age, named Moses Willis was killed at Lilliput, Brunswick County last week by timber from a bridge falling against him.

John Brown's Body.—The other day, in the Spanish Cortes, Senor Moredy Prendergast, the Regents Minister of Ultramar, of the lands beyond the sea, which is the rather poetical term applied by the Spaniards to their colonies, gravely announced that the American people not only hanged John Brown without a legal trial, but such was their indignation at his raid upon the institution of slavery that they flung his body into the sea that their soil might not be polluted by its presence."

This is a Free Country, and if people like to use hair coloring compositions full of dirt, they have a right to do so; but reason suggests that when Pha lon's Vitalia, or Salvation for the Hair—pellucid, sweet, and pleasant—can be obtained at every drug store, none but the unrefined will use any other. 8-4d by druggists.

Be on Your Guard.

The unexampled success which for twenty years has accompanied the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters provokes the envy of ignorant nostrum-mongers in all parts of the country, and the counterfeiting business having been successfully played out in consequence of the numerous suits instituted against the offenders, a new system of tactics has been adopted. In the South and West especially, a legion of "Bitters," prepared from worthless materials and bearing a variety of names, have been got up by irresponsible adventurers with the hope of substituting them to some extent for the Standard Tonic of the Age. In some cases country druggists are the concoctors and proprietors of these miserable and trashy compounds, which are warmly recommended by the venders, who endeavor to palm them off upon the credulous in lieu of the great specific which has never yet had a successful competitor either among proprietary preparations or the medicines prescribed in private practice. This notice is intended to put the public on their guard against persuasions of parties engaged in the attempt to substitute mere rubbish for the most efficient stomachic and alterative at present known. At this season of the year when debility and complaints arising from a lack of vital energy so generally prevail, it is of the greatest consequence that no tricks should be played with depressed and enfeebled systems. Ask, therefore, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the great vegetable invigorant and alterative, and reject, with deserved contempt, the worse than useless medleys offered in its place. It is as important to the public as to the proprietors of the famous restorative that this advice should be heeded.

PRESIDENT GRANT AND HOLDEN'S WAR.

The Standard persists in saying that President Grant has promised to sustain Holden in his lawless and despotic military outrage upon the people of this State. Our information is to the contrary. But if this is so, the people of the whole country and especially the people of the Northern States, ought to know the fact. Holden organizes an armed body of men without any sanction of law, indeed, in direct violation of the Constitution and laws of this State and the United States, at the expense to the State of hundreds of thousands of dollars, he openly and defiantly resists the orders of the Courts of the State; he arrests, without any authority or process of law and for no offense, many of the most respectable citizens of the State, insults, outrages and injures them beyond endurance, and tells the people they must and shall submit, that President Grant has advised him to this course of action and he will sustain him, if the people resist. Is this so? If it is true, let the American people know the fact and learn the character of their President.

The conduct of Holden is the more infamous because it is perpetrated simply with a view to prevent a free and fair election on the 4th of next month. He knows this and his co-workers know this fact, and if the President has made the promises Holden says he has, he knows the fact too.—Every one who participates in the conspiracy is just as guilty as Holden, and ought to be held up with him to public scorn and indignation. Holden and his co workers here will be held criminally and civilly responsible for his crime and outrage, and if the President has condescended to do so base a thing as to join in this disgraceful conspiracy, he is amenable at the bar of the public sentiment of the American people. If Holden has the authority let him show it, else cease to slander and libel the President. We intend he shall know what you say of him and what representations you make as to his connivance at your crimes. Rest assured of this.

For the Sentinel.

Rockingham County, July 18, 1870.

Mr. Turner: In the Standard of the 13th inst., I see the notice of a grand Republican rally at Wentworth. After speaking of the great enthusiasm manifested on that occasion, the writer attempts to indulge in a little sarcasm in regard to a proposition which was made to Messrs. Scott, Phillips and Badger, for a division of time in the discussion.

We have not boasted of any achievement in the matter, but as the whole affair has been grossly misrepresented in the aforesaid publication, I feel it is not only due to the gentlemen who made the proposition, but to truth and justice to state matters as they actually occurred.

In the first place the aforesaid enthusiasm did not exist, as you can readily imagine when I tell you that by actual count there were only 62 negroes and 12 Radical whites present. As to the proposition for a division of time "being received too late," that depends upon circumstances, men may differ as regards what length of time might be necessary, but this I do know, Capt. Ward, who at that time was our candidate for the Senate, together with Col. David Settle, one of the candidates for the House of Representatives, went to Gen. Scott sometime before the assembling of the aforesaid 62 negroes and 12 whites, and asked that they might be allowed a reply. Gen'l. Scott said that it was a mass meeting and the privilege could not be granted. Nothing more was said till after the immortal 74 had assembled in the Court House and Mr. Phillips commenced his speech, when the proposition was made by Messrs. Ward and Settle, (more in sport than otherwise, though had it been accepted would have been complied with) to buy 15 minutes apiece for which they offered to pay ten dollars and Messrs. Scott, Phillips and Badger's hotel bills. This proposition was likewise rejected.

In behalf of truth and justice,

ROCKINGHAM.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Kirk, the Colonel of Holden's militia, has gone to work. He has arrested Mr. Boyd, candidate for the Legislature in Alamance county, and Mr. James S. Scott, a respectable merchant of Graham. He expresses a perfect contempt for all civil processes issued for the protection of the citizens; declares that he will execute his will at the point of the bayonet; that military law rules the day, and that every other kind of law is "played out." The last accounts by telegram inform us that numbers of the people of Caswell county had fled to Danville to escape from this bad man and his band.

Under all these extreme provocations the people of North Carolina possess their souls in patience and are not guilty of even the appearance of attempting to organize resistance to the military authority, however illegally it may have been thrust upon them by Holden.

The citizens of the Old North State feel sure that by this patient submission to temporary wrong, they will furnish the best refutation to the vile charges that have been made against them. These accusations have been most preposterous.—Who could have believed that even Holden would have made representations at Washington that fourteen hundred outrages, murders, rapes, robberies, arsons, castrations, and other unheard-of crimes, had been perpetrated in the State during the last ten months.

North Carolina has been terribly injured by these reports; but they are beginning to react upon the Radical party: even some of its members cannot stand Kirk and his men, and are revolting against Holden's rule. This is remarkable in communities in which parties have been so much embittered.

Holden has gone a little too far for his own good; but he cannot now retrace his steps. From all that we can learn, there is hardly a doubt that his party will be most overwhelmingly defeated next month. —Norfolk Journal, July 20th.

KIRK AND HIS LAMBS.

Kirk, the Tennessee desperado whom Holden has imported into North Carolina to do the dirty work of overawing the people to accept radicalism, is proceeding to his work in a way which must be eminently satisfactory to his employer. He is arresting some of the leading citizens of the State without any provocation save that of being opposed to the infamous rule of just such scoundrels as he is, and when served with the writ of habeas corpus he coolly says that "that thing is played out." This is a state of affairs for you. It would be hard to find any fair minded person who would countenance and defend such high handed outrages as these, yet we are told that the President favors the Holden clan. Can it be so?—Petersburg Courier.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, July 22.—About 1 o'clock the prisoner was brought out of his cell and ascended the scaffold in the jail yard. From the remarkable character of the murder there was a most intense anxiety to witness the execution, and the streets were crowded several blocks from the jail, though only a hundred spectators were admitted to the yard.

The confession of Phillips was read on the scaffold by Rev. Mr. Dickson, while the prisoner stood with his eyes intently on the platform. In the confession he says, he lived unhappily with his wife and when he brought her to Richmond his mind became fully made up, and he took her to the spot and murdered her. He says the reports of his being engaged to be married or in love are all false, and denies having had any acquaintance before or after the murder. He expresses his preparations for death and says he justly deserves all he suffers. Rev. Mr. Jeter made a statement that the prisoner had never to his religious instructors denied his guilt.

During the prayer, Phillips wept bitterly. After it he arose steady, and embraced the ministers, officers of the prison and one of the witnesses against him and took his place on the drop which fell a few minutes after 1 o'clock.

Phillips struggled for four or five minutes and then hung still and dead.

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Twenty-seven Million Dollars.

In 1859 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1864 and 1863 the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after that they begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One Hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AT THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Supplies the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The one advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

READ AND PONDER.

I never read a dozen pages of medicine in all my life, and of course know nothing about it. But, as I said before, Dr. Hammond is my authority for saying, that any man, who smokes such good Cigars, or chews such good Tobacco, as you can find only at FISCK C HARDIE'S, need have no fear of declining health. But will, on the contrary, improve in health and increase in flesh so long as he continues to use them.

Indeed the authority of such distinguished Physicians as Dr. Hammond is not needed to convince you that I only assert what can be substantiated, by contrasting our esteemed fellow citizens, Jno. C. Palmer and Jas. M. Towles, "who never smoke," with such men as my friends Creech on the corner, Maj Tucker just opposite, Harvey Moore, of the SENTINEL and Simon Hayes, the Livery Stable man, and a host of others I could name, who use my Cigars and Tobaccos.

Suffice a word of exhortation; come and see me. Try my goods, and if I don't suit you go further and fare worse.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 20 years from May 9th 1865.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and injurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Testimonials without number from citizens of this, as well as those of other States might be published, but the above is sufficient. Any person having the Fluid can make 8 to 10 bbls., of the Fluid in an hour.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill, and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
